Please read carefully, sign and date:

By submitting your musical work(s), you and Eureka Art Radio (EAR) agree as follows:

1. The musical work(s) you submit are your original work(s) and/or are controlled by you and you alone, and are not subject to any copyright or royalty obligations with respect to any performing rights society such as ASCAP, BMI, or SESAC. If anyone else successfully proves that they in fact contributed to the creation of the musical work(s) submitted, or otherwise have rights to royalties in them, you will pay EAR for any losses suffered as a result.
2. By submitting your musical work(s), you are granting EAR the non-exclusive perpetual right to broadcast the musical work(s) on Internet-based or terrestrial radio stations or to include your musical work(s) in podcasts or use for promotional purposes. You do not give up any part of the ownership or copyright you hold in the musical work(s) and EAR agrees that, whenever and however your musical work(s) are used, your name or your band's name will be announced and/or displayed on screen, or otherwise conveyed to the listener/viewer. You retain the right to revoke this non-exclusive license at any time upon 30 days' prior written notice sent to earonair@gmail.com.
3. You warrant that the files submitted via email do not contain viruses, worms, or other malicious code, and agree that you will be responsible for any losses incurred by EAR in the event that malicious code is present.
4. EAR has the sole and absolute discretion as to whether or not the musical work(s) you submit will be aired on its radio station or otherwise used in accordance with this agreement. Submissions will be reviewed as to content, recording quality, length, and appropriateness for particular air programs and other uses.
5. EAR has the right to modify these terms from time to time for new submissions.
